

Asia Pacific Logistics Federation

14 Countries: NETWORK + PARTNERSHIP
www.aplf.net email: info@aplf.net

MEDIA RELEASE

22 December 2020

Subject: Mr Zhongfu Cui Election of APLF Chairman

Mr Zhongfu Cui was elected as the APLF Chairman approved by the key office bearers.

The newly elected Chairman and Vice Chairman (Jan 2021 – Dec 2022) are as follows:

Chairman (APLF): Mr Zhongfu Cui, VP & Secretary General of China Federation of Logistics and Purchasing (CFLP)

Vice Chairman (APLF): Mr David Rogers, Supply Chain and Logistics Association of Australia (SCLAA)

Vice Chairman (APLF): Mr Roger Lee, Director, Singapore Institute of Materials Management (SIMM)

Vice Chairman (APLF): Mr Shigehisa Hashizume, Executive VP, Japan Institute of Logistics Systems (JILS)

The Asia-Pacific Logistics Federation (www.aplf.net) was established in 1995 by logistics organisations from countries in the Asia-Pacific region which has grown vastly since its creation.

The Asia-Pacific Logistics Federation represents 14 countries including Australia and these include (China, Japan, Korea, New Zealand, Malaysia, Singapore, Philippines, Hong Kong, Thailand, Indonesia, Vietnam, Myanmar, Sri Lanka and Bangladesh) that include business, government contacts and numerous supply chain associations.

Background of elected Chairman:

Mr Zhongfu Cui, the elected Chairman graduated from economics and industry faculty of Zhongnan University in 1983 and Renmin University of China majored in industrial enterprise management in 1986. Since 1990, Mr. Cui successively worked in the Port Office of State Council, the Bureau of Economic Operations of State Economic and Trade Commission and the Bureau of Economic Operations of National Development and Reform Commission of P.R.C. He is currently the Vice President and Secretary-General of China Federation of Logistics & Purchasing and Chairman of China Logistics Technology Association.

For more information, please contact:

APLF	Email
Mr Roger Lee	info@aplf.net

